

EVENT SCHEDULE

8:45 a.m.	Doors Open
9:00 a.m.	Welcome &amp; Opening Performance Gloria House, poet and 2019 Kresge Eminent Artist
9:15 a.m.	Opening Panel Roy E. Finkenbine, Professor of History, University of Detroit Mercy; Alex Zamalin, Professor of Political Science, University of Detroit Mercy; Deanda Johnson, Regional Manager, Network to Freedom, National Park Service; Leslie Williams Fred Hart Williams Genealogical Society
10:45 a.m.	Second Panel Kimberly Simmons, President and Executive Director, Detroit River Project; Darryl Hogan, descendant of one of the 11 freedom seekers that arrived with John Brown in Detroit
11:30 a.m.	Musical Performance by Mosaic Singers from Mosaic Youth Theatre of Detroit
11:45 a.m.	Keynote Address: David S. Reynolds, Professor of English and U. S. History, Graduate Center of the City University of New York; author of "John Brown, Abolitionist: The Man Who Killed Slavery, Sparked the Civil War, and Seeded Civil Rights"
12:30 p.m.	Event Concludes

PRESENTED BY DEWITT C. HOLBROOK MEMORIAL TRUST AND UNIVERSITY OF DETROIT MERCY SCHOOL OF LAW